

Aivija Stravinskaite
Policy Advisor - Environment

Aivija joined COCERAL, EUROMALT and UNISTOCK Europe in August 2019, and she is analysing and presenting EU trade and agricultural policies/initiatives relevant to cereal and oilseed trade.

Supporting the Trade & Agricultural Policy Manager in her economic affairs and EU Common Agricultural Policy work, Aivija is also responsible for managing COCERAL's databases on Crop Forecast and Corn Import Duties.

Before joining COCERAL, EUROMALT and UNISTOCK Europe, Aivija completed a traineeship at the European Commission (DG Trade), where she learnt about the technical aspects of EU Free Trade Agreements. Prior to that, she also worked in a business development team of international consultancy in Brussels.

Aivija holds a Master's degree in International Economic Consulting (Denmark) and is fluent in Lithuanian and English. She has a good knowledge of Danish and some knowledge of Russian and French.
